

18th Gyansatra - Action Search

Date : 11/10/25 – Saturday

Research work and presentation on 85 different topics by 85 teachers of the school.

Action research is an experimental and corrective process in the field of education. Which is very necessary for continuous development and quality improvement. For this purpose, the 18th Gyansatra was organized in the school on “Action Research”. In which the teachers of the school took various problems of the school and took planning, implementation and evaluation actions to solve them and made a very beautiful presentation with the report. 85 teachers of the school presented 85 research papers. The researcher’s viva was also taken by the distinguished scholars in the field of education, Ph.D. Questions were also asked by the other audience and teachers.

In the inauguration ceremony of this Gyansatra Hon. Dr. Dhirajbhai Parmar (Principal, B.Ed. College, Anand), Hon. Dr. I. K. Ansari (Principal, B.Ed. College, Kharod), Hon. Dr. Milanbhai Shah (Retired Principal, Ananda B.Ed. College, Borsad), Hon. Dr. Pinakinbhai Yagnik (Retired Associate Professor, Anand Education College, Anand), Hon. Dr. Jayantbhai Shah (Retired Principal, B.Ed.College, Kharod), Hon. Hemantbhai Prajapati (Chairman, Narayan Vidyalaya, Bharuch), Dr. Jagdishbhai Parmar and his wife Jashodaben Parmar and the school Director of Narayan Vidyalaya, Dr. Bhagubhai I. Prajapati as well as the Principal of the school Mr. Jigneshbhai Joshi (Non-granted department, G.M.), Mrs. Binitaben Gohil (Granted department, G.M.), Mrs. Vidyaben Rana (Principal of English medium) as well as all the teachers and administrative staff of the school were present. The dignitaries also acted as judges in this program. They shared knowledge by measuring the depth of the content in each research subject.

Hon. Dr. Dhirajbhai Parmar (Principal, B.Ed. College, Anand)

While giving a fitting address he said that Narayan Vidyalaya brings out the edge of the teacher’s skill through Gyansatra. Worship knowledge. Words have a lot of pearl power. We are all worshippers of words. We have to know the student. Knowing this, we have to act with devotion. Words touch the heart of a person. The words of the Brahmin Param Pujaya Narayan Babu about education touched the hearts of respected Mr. Jayantibhai Panchal and Mr. Ravjibhai Prajapati and today this school has become a plant from a seed, a tree from a plant and a tree from a plant. He spoke about the achievements of the school, the innovative projects being run in the school, the contribution of various individuals in the development of the school’s heritage. The school has been honored with 4 awards as the best school in

